

Having a baby in NICU is hard. Bringing them home shouldn't be.

Following Baby Back Home makes the transition easier.

How Following Baby Back Home Works

FBBH is designed to help infants and their families by building the family's skill and confidence in providing a safe, nurturing home for their infant.

- ▶ Free of charge to the family
- ▶ Continued as long as needed, up to age 3
- ▶ Arranged to meet the family's schedule
- ▶ Home visiting services provided by Registered Nurses and Licensed Social Workers
- ▶ Offered to families taking their infant home from an Arkansas NICU. Services available in Northeast*, Northwest*, River Valley*, Central<sup>1</sup>, South*, and Southwest Arkansas<sup>1</sup>
- ▶ Closely coordinated with the infant's medical providers and available community resources

<sup>1</sup>Funding was made possible by the Health Resources and Service Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) under grant number D89MC23141 of the Affordable Care Act - Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting Program awarded to the Arkansas Department of Health. *Funding is provided by UAMS Institute for Digital Health & Innovation High Risk Pregnancy Program in cooperation with Arkansas Medicaid.
